

Allowing fewer owners of media than present is a big step against democracy as we have known it. I want more not fewer owners and more real diversity not less particularly when large corporate entities are involved and non transparent process is used. Adopt Copps' proposals at a minimum.